

Jennifer Conkle is the Statewide Coordinator for West Virginia's Apprenticeship for Child Development Specialist (ACDS) program. She is employed by River Valley Child Development Services (RVCDs) in Huntington, WV. Jennifer has over 23 years of experience in the early childhood field and has worked in the ACDS program for five years. Jennifer has experience in a childcare setting as both a teacher and director and recognizes the impact early childhood providers have on the lives of young children and their families. She understands the value of a well-trained and knowledgeable early childhood workforce. Jennifer holds a BA in Counseling and Rehabilitation and a MA in Preschool Special Needs, both from Marshall University in West Virginia.
