Open Hearing to Receive Stakeholder Input

WASHINGTON – The Commission on Evidence-Based Policymaking (CEP) will hold its third public hearing on February 9, 2017, in San Francisco, CA. The hearing will provide an opportunity for interested stakeholders to present their views on issues relevant to the Commission's charge, established in Public Law 114-140. Please visit CEP.gov for information regarding previous hearings.

Participants are provided the opportunity to submit a written statement for the record, as well as make brief oral statements to members of the Commission. Oral statements are limited to 5 - 7 minutes, and should highlight key aspects of the written submission. A limited number of speaking slots are allotted for the day, and filled on a first come, first served basis.

Parties wishing to participate should follow the below guidance:

- Submit your request to participate to Input@cep.gov no later than Tuesday, January 24, 2017.
- Your request should include the following information:
  - Name
  - Professional Affiliation (if applicable)
  - 2-3 Sentence Abstract
  - Written Statement (preferably in .pdf format)

- Commission staff will inform you of your assigned speaking time and additional logistical details no later than January 31, 2017. We cannot accommodate requests for specific timeslots.

If you would like to submit a written statement without requesting a speaking slot, please indicate that in the subject line with your submission. All submitted statements will become part of the Commission record, and will be included in publicly available records.

What: Commission on Evidence-Based Policymaking Public Hearing

When: Thursday, February 9, 2017; 8:30 – 5:00 PM PST (time tentative)

Where: Omni San Francisco Hotel, Nob Hill Room
                 500 California Street
                 San Francisco, CA 94104

Webcast: Please check CEP.gov prior to event date for webcast and caption details.