

AMANDA M. GRANDJEAN, DIRECTOR OF ELECTIONS AND DEPUTY ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE

Amanda (Mandi) M. Grandjean is the Director of Elections and Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for Secretary of State Frank LaRose. She is a member of the National Association of Election Directors ("NASED"), the National Association of Secretaries of State ("NASS"), the Election Assistance Commission ("EAC") Standards Board, the Electronic Registration Information Center ("ERIC"), and the Bipartisan Policy Center's ("BPC") Election Task Force.

Prior to her time with the LaRose administration, Grandjean served as an attorney at Bricker & Eckler LLP, where her practice focused on election law, campaign finance, public policy, ballot initiatives, government affairs, ethics and compliance.

Before joining Bricker, Mandi interned for Speaker John Boehner of the U.S. House of Representatives. She has also served as a media liaison for the U.S. Embassy of the Republic of Iraq, worked as a legal intern with the Franklin County Prosecutor's Office, and as a law clerk for Judge Daniel R. Hawkins.

Mandi graduated from Miami University magna cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa in journalism and political science, where she also was a member of the Miami Women's Swimming and Diving Team that won the Mid-American Conference Championship in 2013. She also graduated with honors from the Ohio State University Moritz College of Law, where she was a member of the Ohio State Law Journal. As Symposium Editor, she planned and hosted the 2015 Ohio State Law Journal Symposium on the History and Future of Election Law.

She is a member of the Miami Women in Law and Leadership Committee and Ohio Women in Government and a graduate of the Jo Ann Davidson Ohio Leadership Institute. She also served as a member of the Miami University Pre-Law Alumni Advisory Board. Mandi was selected as a 2019 Miami University 18 of the last 9 award recipient, recognizing outstanding recent graduates.
