

Bio for Paula Stewart

Paula Stewart has 34 years of experience working in the Early Childhood field. Her experience includes Family Child Care, Head Start, Infant/Toddler Teacher, T.R.A.I.L.S(Training Resource And Information Library Services) Van Specialist and a former ACDS (Apprenticeship for Child Development Specialist ) instructor. She is currently an Infant Toddler Specialist for Region IV, LINK Child Care Resource and Referral Agency in Huntington West Virginia. She is an ACDS graduate and holds a BA from Marshall University in Family and Consumer Science with an emphasis on Family and Child Development. Paula is also PITC certified, endorsed by the West Virginia Infant Toddler Mental Health Association as well as a member of the West Virginia ACES Collation.